

Emergency Preparedness
Neighborhood Housing and Special Needs Survey

In the event of a disaster or other emergency, cooperation among neighbors will be very important, even life saving as individuals are accounted for, family needs are met, and normal living conditions are restored. This survey is intended to help assess our neighborhood preparedness and identify needs. Please answer the questions on this survey so we may know what you can share with your neighbors in times of emergency. Please understand that we know that you value your privacy and so will we. Please fill out what feel comfortable in sharing.
